Get Involved

There has never been a better time to get involved in one of our midweek activities than right now! All of our midweek activities will be in full swing this week, but there is still time to come and join one! I look forward to getting together with my church family every Wednesday; it provides a nice time to refocus in the middle of the week.

On Wednesdays, our kids meet in the Legacy chapel, where they sing, play games, and are taught from a curriculum that ties into the lessons they are learning on Sunday mornings. Our youth have been walking through a series on the core tenets of the Christian faith, called "This is What I Believe," and engaging in small-group discussion at the end of each service. We have our Man Church group, which has begun a 5-week series on godliness in room 225, and our ladies' Bible study has resumed in the church library. We are excited to have a new co-ed class start this Wednesday, as Pastor Spencer will begin a series on Apologetics, or the defense of your faith, in room 207. Our choir has begun rehearsing Christmas music along with their non-seasonal music. There are so many opportunities for you to get involved in the church and grow in your walk with Christ on Wednesday nights. I hope you will consider joining one of these groups.

On Sundays, discipleship groups are meeting again between 4 and 5:30 pm around campus. These small groups are a great opportunity to grow in your knowledge of God's word and walk with Christ, and to develop strong relationships with brothers and sisters in Christ. On Sundays at 5:30 pm in Legacy Chapel, we have Sunday evening services with congregational singing, followed by Pastor Tim and Spencer preaching. They are currently teaching a series on the life of David. Our Next Generation Worship Arts Ministry is meeting again at 5:30, as our preschoolers, kids, and youth are learning to use their musical abilities to worship the Lord together. We are so excited for them to share what they're working on with their church family over the next few months.

How is the Lord leading you to get involved at WFBC?
