From Our Pastor . . .

Congratulations graduates! This Sunday I look forward to sharing with students the sufficiency of Scripture. As students go to college, it is vital to know that the Scripture is indeed trustworthy.

Ps. 119:105. Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

This month we remember those who gave their lives for freedom. Someone related this story, “During World War II a group of soldiers spent a few hours in London on the eve of their being returned to the front. A church sought to fill those hours with entertainment and companionship. At the close of the evening, one of the soldiers stood up to express their appreciation to the leaders of the church. For a moment he spoke in a light vein, endeavoring to keep up the frantic false gaiety of the evening. But in spite of himself he became grave and serious. He said, “We are returning to the front to face battle. Some of us will die! Can anyone tell us how to die? There was silence for a moment. Then a woman stood and quoted the hope-bringing words of the Savior: “I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live’ (John 11:25).”

Please volunteer to help with VBS. More children can be won for Christ and families impacted in this week than any other way. Your help is needed. Everyone can do something to make an eternal investment in these children.

Is. 11:6b. and a little child shall lead them.
