Heb. 6:10 (CEV). God is always fair. He will remember how you helped his people in the past and how you are still helping them. You belong to God, and he won't forget the love you have shown his people.

Diligence in serving Christ is the outcome of devotion to Him. Believers ought to overflow with love for Christ and demonstrate that love in service to others. William Booth, the founder of the Salvation Army, had a watchword – “Others.”

I am thankful for God's grace in the salvation of new believers. Let's continue to share the “good news” with others in personal witnessing and bring people to Christ.

A life-saving crew that went out in a boat through a terrific storm and rescued a man who had been fastened to a mast on a wrecked ship caught in the rocks and visible clearly from shore through their glasses. They brought this man back, but he was utterly unconscious. They took him to the little hospital. . . and the first words he uttered when he came to consciousness, were these: “There is another man.” They said, “What do you mean?” He said, “Another, another man.” They said, “Do you mean there is another living man out on that wreck?” “Yes,” he said, “another man.” And so they went out again through the storm. . . and, sure enough, they found another man. . . and he was saved.
